

A portrait of a man, Borys Musielak, is the central focus. The image is heavily stylized with abstract, overlapping geometric shapes in shades of blue, white, and magenta. These shapes create a sense of depth and movement, partially obscuring the man's face. The background is a solid dark blue. The overall aesthetic is modern and tech-oriented.

A photograph of a rainy street scene. In the foreground, a wet cobblestone sidewalk reflects the overcast sky. A dark, wet asphalt road runs horizontally across the middle of the frame. On the left side of the road, several cars are parked, including a silver sedan and a red car. On the right side, a red Volvo station wagon is parked. In the background, there are several multi-story apartment buildings. The building on the left is a tall, tan-colored structure with many windows. The building on the right is a shorter, light-colored building with a gabled roof. The sky is grey and overcast, and rain is visible as white streaks throughout the scene.

Work from home...

A group of people are gathered around a white table in a bright, modern office setting. A woman with long brown hair, wearing a blue sleeveless top, sits on the left, holding a glass of amber liquid. Next to her, a man with a beard and a pink shirt is looking at a document on the table. In the foreground, the back of a person's head is visible. The table is cluttered with various items: a red folder, a pink cup filled with colorful pens, a smartphone, a glass of water, and a red case. A large black rectangle with the text "Open Coffee" is superimposed over the center of the image.
